The New Netherland Institute
presents
Rensselaerswijck Seminar XXVII

Early Modern Albany:
Colonial Intersections in the Dutch New World
Saturday, October 9, 2004

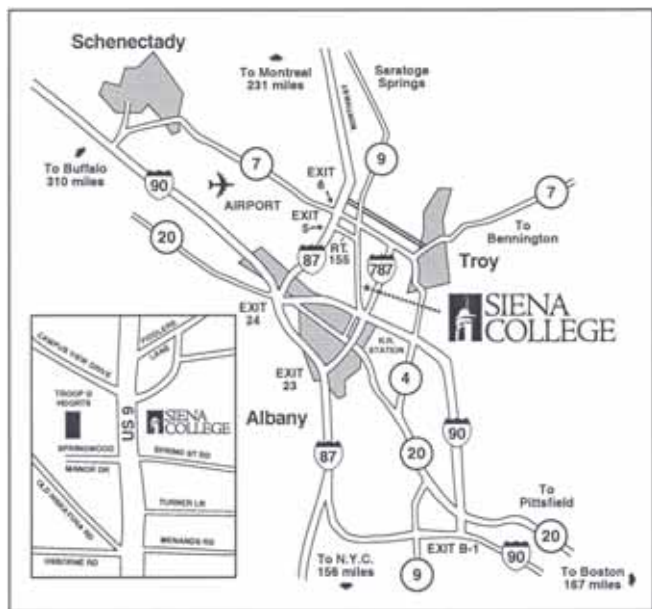

The New Netherland Institute announces its 27th Rensselaerswijck Seminar, a one-day conference to be held on Saturday, October 9, 2004 at Siena College in Loudonville, New York. Six speakers will present an analysis of the Dutch cultural footprint on the upper Hudson Valley based on a unique combination of archeological and documentary evidence, enhanced by the creativity of an artist's eye. An additional feature will be a comparison with a contemporary community in Lord Baltimore's Maryland.

Speakers

Paul Huey, NY State Office of Parks, Recreation, and Historic Preservation, Cohoes
Adam Luscier, Hartgen Archeological Associates, Inc.
James Bradley, ArchLink, Charlestown, MA
L.F. Tantillo, artist, Albany, NY
Henry Miller, Historic St. Mary's City, St. Mary's, MD
Janny Venema, New Netherland Project, Albany, NY
