

Find us at www.newnetherlandinstitute.org and on Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram. Subscribe to our email list NEWMARC-1 to receive information about events, activities, conferences, and new research.

New Netherland Institute
Exploring America's Dutch Heritage

Conflict and Collaboration in the New World

The 41st Annual Conference of the New Netherland Institute

September 22, 2018

*New York State Museum
Albany*

9:00am

Welcome & Introductions

Jippe Hiemstra, New Netherland Institute
Mark Schaming, New York State OCE
Michael McGandy, Cornell University Press
Stephen McErleane, New Netherland Institute

“Colonization and the Disruption of the Hudson Valley’s Native Landscape”

Jason R. Sellers, University of Mary Washington

“A Daingerous Liberty’: Dutch-Mohawk Relations and the Colonial Gunpowder Trade”

Shaun Sayres, Clark University

10:50am

Break

11:20am

“Unsettled: New Netherland and the Case for Slowing Down Histories of Colonial America”

Amy Ransford, Indiana University

“Online Access to the Records of the Dutch West India Company: Cooperation within the Shared Cultural Heritage Program”

Tom Ruller, New York State Archives
Irene Gerrits, Nat’l Archives of the Netherlands
Johan Van Langen, Nat’l Archives of the Netherlands

12:20pm

Lunch

1:20pm

“‘He Deserves to Be Severely Punished’: The Banishment and Deportation of Criminals, Political Enemies, and Religious Outsiders in New Netherland, 1638–1664”

Danny Noorlander, SUNY Oneonta

“Fugitives and Anglo-Dutch Collaboration in 17th-Century America”

Timo McGregor, New York University

2:40pm

Break

3:10pm

“Many Strangers Passing: Demographic Shifts in the New Orange Period”

Artyom Anikin, University of Amsterdam

“The Afterlife of an Empire: The Second Dutch Atlantic, 1680-1815”

Willem Klooster, Clark University

4:30pm

End